What have we heard them say?

What can we imagine them saying?

Raising productivity need to be the main engine of agriculture growth as virtually all cultivable land is formed perunit of land will

Thinks

India is a global agricultural power house.It is the second largest producer of rice, wheat etc

> Fiscal policy statement highlighted that Indian agriculture sector is projected to grow by 3.5 percent in recent years

According to some acientists agriculture was buidespread in the Indian penisula,1000-3000years ago, well beyond the fertile plains of the north

The agricultural growth in the 1990s and 2000s slowed down, averaging about 3.5% per annum, and cereal yards have increased by only 1.4% per annum in 2000s

> Indias agriculture sector has been witnessing robust growth with an average annual growth rate of 4.6 percent over the last six years

The new agriculture policy 2000 seeks to actualise the vast untapped potential of Indian agriculture

The sharp rise in foodgrain production during India is green revolution of the 1970s enable the country to achieve selfsufficiency in food-grains and stave off the threat of famine

> Major reform and strengthening of Indian agriculture research and extension system is one of the most important needs for agricultural growth

INDIAS AGRICULTURAL CROP PRODUCTION 1997-2021

> Encouraging farmers to diversify to higher value commodities will be a significant factor for higher agricultural growth

Agriculture is the main source of income for major part of our country's population

> Digital resources at farmer's disposal not only lead to the efficient utilization of capacity but also has the scope to improve processes on the field

> > Feels

Does

